

Partner Spotlight

Robert Dawson, Co-Chair All Saints' Episcopal Church Produce Market

Description of Organization:

The ministry of All Saints' Episcopal Church's Produce Market was designed to provide high quality, low-cost produce to the city of Pontiac. All Saints' is very involved in the community and facilitates a community breakfast every Saturday. Additionally, All Saints' has a resale shop and bookstore to feed the mind, body, and soul.

Tell us more about the Produce Market.

All Saints' Produce Market is open every Saturday from 10 a.m. - 2 p.m. The Produce Market is located at the church at 171 W. Pike Street in Pontiac. Cash and EBT are accepted.

What's the biggest benefit of being a part of HPWC?

Through partnership with Healthy Pontiac, We Can!, we have received resources to help support our programs and it also helps keep us up to date with the changes occurring in the community.

What are you most proud of in Pontiac?

Pontiac has its problems, but it's not just lying down and taking it; the city is reinventing itself and that is exciting.

Favorite healthy meal?

Yogurt, granola, and berries.

Favorite exercise?

Walking.

Three fun things about me:

1. I am a cat person.
2. I like to fish.
3. I like to go to the symphony.

For more information on All Saints' Episcopal Church or the Produce Market:

Contact Robert at Rdawson7@mac.com, or All Saints' Episcopal Church at (248) 334-4571.

